

Name: _____

Date: _____

Team Building/Leadership

Across

- 2 A good leader can _____ effectively.
 3 _____ - high dependence on the leader, members are figuring out what their role is in the group while being polite and courteous.
 5 _____ - hands off style, gives little or no direction, group members have maximum freedom, group determines goals and actions.
 7 _____ - members are functioning effectively as a unit. Members are comfortable with others' strengths and weaknesses. Disagreements resolved in healthy manner.
 8 Opportunities for casual social interaction are _____ to healthy group formation.
 12 All groups include leaders and _____.
 14 Different situations will determine who the _____ is and who is the follower based on individual skill sets.
 15 _____ - Behavior is adjusted to allow the group to accomplish tasks-rules and values are agreed upon, roles begin to be established for members.
 17 Establish healthy _____ like our class rules: Always be: safe, responsible, and respectful.
 19 Human Beings are _____ animals.
 21 A good leader can disagree with others in a _____ manner.
 23 _____ has different meanings for different people.
 24 Includes regulating heat, cold, hydration, food, and energy levels- _____ Needs
 25 It is important to try to address this need for everyone- _____ needs

Down

- 1 _____ - members are comfortable enough to move past pleasantries, normal for fights and disagreements to occur in this stage, conflict is necessary for growth. Once groups successfully exit this stage, they will become closer and stronger.
 4 What one person does _____ the whole group.
 6 A good leader is a _____ solver.
 9 Leadership is an _____.
 10 What is the ability to assess people and situations and then decide on the best course of action in order to achieve a specific goal?
 11 _____-authoritative, domineering, doesn't invite feedback or listen to others' ideas.
 13 Physical safety is every group members responsibility- _____ needs
 16 Physiological, emotional, _____, security, and spiritual are the five human needs when dealing with the outdoors.
 18 _____-leader always consults with group, everyone is included in decision making, majority rules.
 20 Leadership style is dependent on beliefs, _____, and skill sets.
 22 Feeling comfortable enough to put forth ideas in a group without being bullied or made fun of- _____ needs

Word Bank

key	followers	healthy	physiological
leader	social	Storming	security
Democratic	emotional	Performing	Spirituality
problem	Autocratic	Forming	personality
Norming	action	communicate	Laissez-faire
affects	spiritual	leadership	community standards social			